Emblems

FAMILY GROUP MOVEMENT

This emblem was designed in 1983 by the laity, not the Passionists, but has a distinct Passionist flavour, as you can see.

The emblem features three generations of people within the Heart, depicting a place in Family Groups for everyone wishing to deepen their Christian love and acceptance of one other.

The Cross is in the heart of our lives reminding us that Family Groups don't take away the difficulties of life but give us the strength and courage to live life as followers of Christ; to live out the simple Gospel message to "Love One Another".

In 1994, the International Year of the Family, there was a change concerning the people depicted in the Heart.

With the changing racial composition of Family Groups, our original, creative artist added a few deft touches of the pen to show that Family Groups are for EVERYONE, no matter what their ethnic background.

In 1998, colour became an extra added feature of the logo for those viewing our web site.

Greetings!

In August a special celebration hosted by St Theresa's Parish in Plimmerton took place to formally transition the NZ Directors role from Lynn and Rob Hill, who have served in the role for the past 28 years to a team, consisting of two couples, Mary-Ellen & John Leen and Paul & Linda Darbyshire. From the opening hymn to the final blessing the congregation was drawn into common-union to celebrate with Fr Brian Traynor and Fr Tom McDonough. The New National Directors and each Diocese Director couple were commissioned.

When visiting a Parish or group there is never a shortage of stories to share about the benefits of the Passionist Family Groups. The stories are often remembered because the experience stirred something special in their hearts.

In 2017 we are keen to explore with Parish's how best to ensure all in their community are made aware of and invited to join a family group.

'We only accomplish in our lifetime a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work.
Nothing we do is complete.'

your way....*
