

Leadership qualities...Hamilton

Having a vision of what you want to achieve
Commitment
Dedication
Passion
Confidence: a belief in oneself
Trusting in oneself
Taking the initiative
Able to make decisions
Striving for positive outcomes
Looking for benefits for the community
Being prepared to overstep the boundaries
Being prepared to try new/different things
Seeking to improve things
Leading by example
Being prepared for negative outcomes
Making something out of disappointment: seeing the positive
Staying focused
Responding to and doing our duty
Inspiring collective action
Having the ability to communicate ideas and ideals
Listening to and hearing what is said
Responding to what we hear
Helping people feel at ease
Being a good listener
Being non judgemental
Mentoring
Offering support and encouragement
Believing in others
Delegating
Getting to know people
Discerning and developing skills in others
Looking for future leaders
Being able to recognise that one view may not be right
Being sensitive to others' needs
Forming and building friendships
Helping to 'draw out' people to help them
Trusting others (which will gain respect)
Helping people in need
Co-operation
Empathy
Compassion
Remembering the place of prayer
Share good news.