

Holy Cross Retreat

Letter 147a

9th December, 2022

Good morning.

I meant to include this video link below (Advent dialogue) in yesterday's newsletter, so here is that link and some additional material.

Advent dialogue

A little over a week ago, our Vietnamese student Tri interviewed Erick and religion teacher Shane Taylor from Our Lady of Mercy College, Heidelberg on the topic 'Where do you find Hope and Peace in the midst of Suffering'. Apart from rich insights and sharing from Shane and Erick, Tri's expertise as interviewer and film editor, is clearly on display. You can paste the link into Google search.

T shirt group

Last night, the visiting Traynor family (Anne-Marie, Paul and Peter) presented our students and Erick with a tee shirt in acknowledgement of the warm welcome they gave and their contribution to community life at Holy Cross. From the photo it is obvious that one of their gifts is joy – the theme of the coming week

What I was in those days

The photos below are a way of capturing the younger person inside the person now.

Some grandparents could relate to this image

Covid relief

The attached video reflects an opinion that there are some benefits from contracting COVID

Have a nice day
